Kayak Skit

Simon Kenton Council

SETTING: Scouts bring in a 2-man (or two one-man) kayaks or mime being in a kayak (Double bladed paddles are all you really need - broomsticks would be OK)

SCOUT ONE: Boy, sure is pretty here. But I'm getting cold.

SCOUT TWO: Me too. (peers off in the distance) Too far to shore, let's build a fire here in the kayak! That'll heat us up.

SCOUT ONE: Good idea!

(Scouts mime building the fire - say AHH, that feels good, etc.) SCOUT ONE: (suddenly) Hey, we're sinking! (Frantic bailing, then turn to the Audience and shrug shoulders in exaggerated style)

SCOUT ONE: Well, that just goes to show you....

SCOUT TWO: You can't have your kayak and heat it too!

Calamine Lotion

Simon Kenton Council

SETTING: It is the story of what happened when Johnny Cub Scout ran out of calamine lotion on a Webelos overnight, and how he solved his problem. Ask the boys if they know what calamine lotion is and what it is used for. If they do not know, tell them.

Start a rhythm with slapping the knees twice, and clapping the hands twice and repeat till the end. Audience repeats what the leader does.

Leader: Fleas!

Audience: Fleas!

Leader: Flies!

Audience: Flies!

Leader: Fleas, Flies, Mosquitoes!

Audience: Fleas, Flies, Mosquitoes!

Leader: Calamine, calamine, calamine lotion.

Audience: Calamine, calamine, calamine lotion.

Leader: No more calamine lotion!

Audience: No more calamine lotion!

Leader: Itchy, itchy, scratchy, scratchy, aaahh, I got one on my backy!

Audience: Itchy, itchy, scratchy, scratchy, aaahh, I got one on my backy!

Leader: Zap goes the bug when you hit him with bug spray!

Audience: Zap goes the bug when you hit him with bug spray!

(At this point, everyone draws the bug spray out of his pocket like a six-shooter and simulates spraying bugs and makes a hissing noise.)
